Where to Get Your Goods—Watches and Jewelry—Notions—Books and Periodicals—Pianos.

YESTERDAY

We devoted an article to informing our readers where they could procure on the best terms the most suitable articles for the coming holidays. We shall contine our catalogue to-day, and shall first speak of

WATCHES AND JEWELRY.

To be the possessor of a first class, A No. 1 time-keeper, is certainly the desire of every one. To know the time of day to the dot, by which you can regulate all your movements—to business, to your meals, or to pleasure, is agreeable to all. If you are witchless yourself, or your mother, wife or sister is without a regulator, now is the time to samply the deficiency. Or if you have a desire to bestow a present of a ring, or of any other article of jewelry, on a friend, the holidays are the time for samply the deficiency of the second of the celebrated Lutheran Mission Sunday School of our city. As the time approaches, the officers and teachers seem to double their exertions to make their anniversary this year superior to anything of the past. Washington Hall will be beautifully decorated and brilliantly lighted, and made vocal by songs of praise from the hearts and voices of nearly three hundred little singers. Rev. Alfred Taylor, the distinguished Sunday School speaker and writer, has consented to be present, to take part in the exercises. We expect to see crowded houses both evenings.

STRUCK WITH PARALYSIS, Several since with Paramsis.—Several nights since Lieut. E. F. Moore, formerly of Co. A, 1st W. Va. Exempts, suffered a stroke of paralysis, which very nearly proved fatal. The Lieutenant was insensible for about twenty-four-hours, but his many friends will be pleased to learn that he is now recovering.

ROBBERY.—Yesterday afternoon a half drunken fellow stole a roll of cloth from the store door of Stone & half drunken fellow stole a cloth from the store door of Stone & cloth from the store door of Stone & Thomas. He was seen by some parties across the street, who informed the owners of the goods of their loss. The fellow was pursued and captured and committed to the lock-up. The goods were recovered.
